VOTE OF THANKS

AGE OF PERSONACRA

By KALLI PURIE ▶
Vice Chairperson and Executive Editor-in-Chief, India Today Group

Last year, I spoke of a world in flux and flex mode. Today, it just feels like flux and flex, hyper scaled, and we have a world order in free fall and global trade in a chokehold. We watch almost hypnotised as war strategy is decided on the fly. Everything we thought was sacrosanct is suddenly negotiable. Borders. Decorum. Safety. Ethics. Rules of war. The currency of goodness. The semblance of peace and prosperity.

Photograph by HARDIK CHHABRA