

CARE IN CRISIS

Institutions are under-built, severely ill-equipped and unevenly distributed, with poor medical and mental-health support

389 in 41 Special Homes##

781 in 40 Places of Safety

496 in 14 Observation-cum-Special Homes

8,241 housed in 319 Observation Homes

40
CCIs for girls across 292 districts—the deepest structural deficit

80%*
of CCIs have no medical staff; 45%* have no counsellors

60%*
of CCIs sharing information in the survey have one person-in-charge

14
States lack Place of Safety for 16-18-olds accused of heinous offences, pushing them into spaces neither secure nor rehabilitative

13 out of 24
states surveyed have Special Juvenile Police Units in every district. Handling often falls to untrained officers

145
LCPOs# in 10 states handle 25,403 cases with an average 175 per officer, which erodes follow-up and counselling

*24 states and 1 UT surveyed; Of those participated; #Legal-cum-probation officers; OHs house children temporarily during inquiry pendency; ##SHs provide long-term rehabilitation and protection for those who have committed an offence