Sleeping Partner

If there's one truth that's now universally accepted, it's that a good night's sleep does wonders for your health and wellbeing. Helping with restful sleep while looking great is FA Home's latest launch, Aranya. Inspired by the wilderness and the raw beauty of nature, this collection draws inspiration from Gond art while embracing the Wabi Sabi philosophy. Made using organic linen and cotton satin, each piece honours sustainable practices.

Alchemy of Porcelain

There's no better proof of the delicate dance of art and craft than with a Lladro piece in porcelain. Marking the brand's 25th anniversary in the country is their new store at The Chanakya in Delhi. Spread across 616 sq ft, world-renowned architect Héctor Ruiz-Velázquez is the visionary behind the showroom. For us, the showstoppers are the limited-edition sculptures of Spanish Purebreed and Princess Scheherazade, displayed beneath the Seasons chandelier, as well as the brand's iconic The Guest series placed on a special wall.
