This victory is that of the people of Delhi and of the leadership PM Modiji has given. His word is enough for me. We are a team, we are doing it together

Modiji has made women-led development a reality. With Rekha Gupta as CM, he has sent a message to all the daughters of India that they can go further than ever before reign—Gupta responded, "I won't stay there at all. It is the public's money and I have no right to spend it on my comfort."

The CM also said her leadership style would present a contrast with that of the AAP leader, insisting that material proof would soon be forthcoming and it won't be just empty promises. "You want me to make the same promises like Mr Kejriwal? I don't want to say sorry like Mr Kejriwal when he was exiting," Gupta added.

On how she'd manage senior colleagues in her cabinet, the first-time legislator said Prime Minister Narendra Modi's guidance was all that mattered. "We are a team. Modiji is our leader and his word is sufficient. The path is clear for us—we are to work for Viksit Delhi and Viksit Bharat," she said. Oozing confidence, Gupta also quoted a verse from poet Rahat Indori: "Shaakhon se toot jayein woh patte nahin hain hum, aandhi se koi keh de ki aukaat mein rahe (We are not leaves to fall off a branch, someone tell the wind to not cross limits." ■
