

SHABANA AZMI

Actress

"You think I had a choice? She [Shibani] is my daughter-in-law. She pulled me by the ear really. I had to do it"

"To play a part that appears to be almost simple, you have to do a lot of homework and riyaaz to make it seem effortless"

SHIBANI AKHTAR

Creator & Executive Producer, Dabba Cartel

"It's part of the women's movement that's been filtering down and entering every realm and every sphere of what women are doing... finally, you're happy to own that men and women are different, and celebrating that difference"

"I wanted to create a story that was female-led and I knew I wanted the genre of crime drama. We have so many cartel stories from around the world, but I think what made this one so unique was the backdrop of Thane"

JYOTHIKA

Actress

"We were all treated equally, all had well-written characters and were all secure in our places–that brought us all together"

"The toughest characters to play are the ones which are the real-life ones which women resonate with"
