

PHOTO BY MILIND SHELTE

ARUNDHATI BHATTACHARYA

PRESIDENT AND CEO, SALESFORCE SOUTH ASIA

A career banker, Arundhati Bhattacharya has built a remarkable second career in technology after becoming the first woman to chair the State Bank of India. Since joining Salesforce in 2020, she has overseen the company's rapid expansion in India, with its workforce crossing 17,000. Under her leadership, India remains one of Salesforce's largest and fastest-growing international markets outside the US. Today, she is championing adoption of artificial intelligence (AI), skilling, and responsible innovation, while advocating empathy, curiosity, and continuous learning as essential leadership capabilities in an AI-driven workplace.

BHAWNA AGARWAL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & MD,
HEWLETT PACKARD ENTERPRISE (HPE)

Bhawna Agarwal in her role as Senior Vice President and Managing Director of Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) India, brings over 25 years of cross-industry leadership experience. Since joining HPE in 2019, she has held key roles spanning growth, transformation, industry verticals, and go-to-market strategy. She champions digital transformation, innovation, and strategic partnerships to accelerate enterprise growth. Bhawna also serves as President of the Manufacturers' Association for Information Technology (MAIT) and sits on the USISPF India Executive Leadership Board.

BRAHMANI NARA

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR,
HERITAGE FOODS

Heritage Foods has been in business since 1992. It is a name in the dairy space and 10 million consume its products each day. As its Executive Director, Brahmani Nara has a huge growth story through milk and value-added products. Headquartered in Hyderabad, Heritage has a significant presence in the south, and now in northern and western India as well. The vision for 2030 is to be the most popular dairy nutrition company in India. That will keep Nara on her toes.

PHOTO BY MANDAR DEODHAR