JYOTSNA & DEEKSHA SURI

CMD, BHARAT HOTELS, AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, BHARAT HOTELS

The company has successfully amalgamated three of its subsidiary companies with Bharat Hotels Limited. This consolidation has simplified the organisational structure, delivered greater operational efficiency and cost-effectiveness. Under Jyotsna and Deeksha, the group launched 'Hospitality with a Heart', bringing together India's heritage, people, and the commitment to sustainability. The company is commencing construction of its hotel projects in Ahmedabad and Chitrakoot. It also plans to upgrade and refurbish its properties in Goa, Udaipur, Mumbai, Srinagar, and other locations.

KAKU NAKHATE

CHAIRPERSON,
BANK OF AMERICA, INDIA

Kaku Nakhate is a finance industry veteran with an experience of over three decades. She began her career at DSP Merrill Lynch, where she spent close to two decades before leaving for JP Morgan. A year later, after Bank of America acquired Merrill Lynch, she returned as the country head. She led Bank of America's India operations for over 15 years, before Vikram Sahu was appointed as the country head and CEO in 2025. Nakhate played a key role in driving the bank's expansion across sectors, including capital markets, investment banking and corporate banking in the country.

MALLIKA SRINIVASAN

CHAIRMAN & MANAGING DIRECTOR, TAFE

LAKSHMI VENU

VICE CHAIRMAN, TAFE

Mallika Srinivasan has been a formidable force in one of the country's most storied business groups. As Chairman and Managing Director of India's second-largest tractor maker TAFE, her leadership was perhaps best demonstrated by her successful battle with US agricultural machinery giant AGCO Corporation over the ownership of the Massey Ferguson brand in India. Her daughter, Lakshmi Venu, is now following in her footsteps. Venu was appointed vice chairman of TAFE in March 2025. She is also the MD of Sundaram-Clayton.
