

PALLAVI JAIN GOVIL
SECRETARY, MINISTRY OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS

An Indian Administrative Service (IAS) officer of the 1994 batch of the Madhya Pradesh cadre, Pallavi Jain Govil was appointed Secretary, Ministry of Corporate Affairs, in August this year. Prior to that, she was Secretary, Youth Affairs. Now heading this crucial ministry, Govil will have her hands full overseeing the complete rollout of the PM Internship Scheme, as well as advancing the legislative agenda, including the Companies Law (Amendment) Bill, 2026, which is expected to be discussed in the Winter Session. Work is also underway to help Indian firms scale up along the lines of the global Big Four.

PALLAVI S. SHROFF
MANAGING PARTNER, SHARDUL AMARCHAND MANGALDAS & CO

With over four and a half decades of experience, Pallavi S. Shroff remains one of the biggest corporate and competition lawyers in the country. Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas has grown rapidly and today has over 1,000 lawyers with women comprising half of the workforce. Since starting her practice in 1981, Shroff has represented various clients before domestic courts, the Supreme Court of India and in domestic and international arbitration. She has also worked closely with the government on competition policies and was most recently a member of the Digital Competition Law Committee.

PHOTO BY CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

POONAM GUPTA
DEPUTY GOVERNOR, RESERVE BANK OF INDIA

One of the most well-known economists in the country today, Poonam Gupta as Deputy Governor, RBI plays a critical role in economic and monetary policy formulation. The first woman to hold the DG position at the central bank in over a decade, Gupta oversees key portfolios including economic policy and research, monetary policy, financial market operations, and financial stability. Her department's insights and estimates on growth and inflation have been largely guiding monetary and fiscal policies as the West Asia war rages on.