PRITI ADANI
CHAIRPERSON,
ADANI FOUNDATION

Priti Adani has headed the Adani Foundation since 1996. The beginning was through a small initiative in Mundra, spread over a few villages. Now, that spans more than 7,200 villages and urban wards in 22 states. Adani, a doctor by qualification, chose the path of philanthropy and education. Today, the Adani Foundation has a $7-billion commitment and an outlay of $100 million. As the corporate social responsibility arm of the Adani Group, it is clear that a lot of work still needs to be done.

PHOTO BY BANDEEP SINGH

RADHIKA GUPTA
MD & CEO,
EDELWEISS AMC

"Be aggressive enough in business that you don't sleep during the day, but conservative enough that you don't have sleepless nights," says Radhika Gupta, the MD and CEO of Edelweiss AMC. She is spearheading Edelweiss Financial Services' asset management business, and, under her watch, the average AUM has surged from ₹6,917 crore in March 31, 2017 to over ₹1.77 lakh crore as of June 2026, per AMFI data. Gupta played a key role in the acquisition of JP Morgan Mutual Fund, and the fund house was among the early entrants in the specialised investment fund space under the brand Altiva.

PRITI RATHI GUPTA
FOUNDER, LXME

Priti Rathi Gupta was the MD at Anand Rathi Shares and Stock Brokers, and had also played a key role in setting up the currencies and commodities business at Anand Rathi. But, when she was studying at Harvard during a project for a business strategy class, Gupta and her team presented LXME—an investment platform for women. Everyone liked the idea and later in 2020, the company was officially launched. Women are more goal-oriented, says Gupta, whose platform now offers products exclusively for women. Also passionate about film making, she is additionally the founder of Ishka Films, a media production company.

PHOTOS BY MANDAR DEODHAR