PHOTOS BY MANDAR DEODHAR

SCHAUNA CHAUHAN & NADIA CHAUHAN

CEO OF PARLE AGRO &
JOINT MANAGING DIRECTOR, PARLE AGRO

The two sisters have transformed Parle Agro from a company synonymous with Frooti to a larger brand with a diverse portfolio. Appy, Bailey, Smoodh sit well in the FMCG company's arsenal. With an eye for innovation and new ideas, the Chauhan siblings have steered the course of the company in a fiercely competitive market against deep-pocketed rivals. It's not easy to be relevant after so many years in the business of brands, but the two leaders have done just that.

SHOBANA KAMINENI

EXECUTIVE CHAIRPERSON,
APOLLO HEALTH, AND
PROMOTER-DIRECTOR, APOLLO
HOSPITALS ENTERPRISE LIMITED

Shobana Kamineni has played a key role in expanding Apollo's pharmacy, primary care, digital health and insurance businesses, and has been closely involved in building the group's integrated healthcare and retail ecosystem. Her work spans supply-chain expansion, pharmacy modernisation and digital access programmes. Kamineni has previously served as the President of CII and sits on several national and global advisory boards, contributing to broader conversations on healthcare access.

SHEFALI GORADIA

CHAIRPERSON, DELOITTE SOUTH ASIA

Shefali Goradia became the first woman to head a Big Four in India, when she was appointed as Chairperson, Deloitte South Asia in March 2023. A chartered accountant and tax specialist, she has worked extensively in international taxation and now also leads Deloitte's Global Boardroom Program for South Asia. One of her key focus areas is to include pressing issues such as climate goals, ESG, innovation and diversity as part of the boardroom agenda. She remains passionate about encouraging other women to take up leadership roles.

PHOTOS BY HARDIK CHHABRA