

PHOTO BY CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

SHRADHA SURI MARWAH
CHAIRPERSON & MD, SUBROS LTD

Shradha Suri Marwah leads Subros, a joint venture between the Suri family, Japan's Suzuki Motor Corporation, and DENSO Corporation, and a market leader in automotive thermal solutions. Having joined the company in 2001, she became Managing Director in 2008, and Chairperson and Managing Director in 2021. She has served as president of the Automotive Components Manufacturers Association (ACMA) for 2023-25, and is a member of the CII National Council. Suri Marwah holds postgraduate degrees from Leeds and the London School of Economics.

SHWETA JALAN
MANAGING PARTNER,
ADVENT INTERNATIONAL

Shweta Jalan joined Advent in September 2009 and has remained there. This 17-year stint was preceded by nine years at ICICI Venture Funds Management. Success in private equity calls for identifying a company's growth story well in advance and backing that with perseverance, patience and grit. Through her career, Jalan has seen many phases of the industry and draws upon that experience to invest in sectors as varied as financial services, healthcare and pharmaceuticals, consumer, and manufacturing.

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

SIMRUN MEHTA
MANAGING DIRECTOR—PRIVATE EQUITY, KKR

Simrun Mehta had joined as an analyst at Lehman Brothers in 2008, but just a few months in, the investment bank went bankrupt. Mehta then went on to work with Japan's Nomura in fixed income, after it acquired Lehman's Asia Pacific business. She has been with leading global investment firm KKR since 2012 and has been closely involved with its investments across sectors. She serves on the boards of various companies, across diverse fields. These include Vini Cosmetics, Avendus Capital, RE Sustainability and Ness Digital Engineering.