Family Office Types

	SINGLE-FAMILY OFFICE	MULTI-FAMILY OFFICE	VIRTUAL OR OUT-SOURCED FAMILY OFFICE
Function	Manages the entire wealth/ investment, tax, legal, and succession needs of a single ultra HNI family	Caters to multiple wealthy families, and offers almost all the services that single-family offices provide	Investments, tax compliance legal aspects and estate planning are done remotely through a network of external advisors
Ticket size	₹100 crore-plus	₹25 crore onwards	₹10 crore to ₹25 crore
Fee/costs	At least ₹2.5 crore a year	0.25% to 1.5% of assets managed or fixed retainer of ₹25 lakh to ₹1 crore annually	Up to 1% of the assets managed per year or an annual fixed retainer

NOTE TICKET SIZES AND FEES ARE BALLPARK FIGURES AND VARY WIDELY

Investments With High Ticket Sizes

	AIF	PMS	SIF
Minimum investment	₹1 crore	₹50 lakh	₹10 Lakh
Expense ratios/fees	1-2.5% of assets plus profit share	1-2.5% of assets plus profit share	Up to 2.1% of assets for regular plan

NOTE AIF: ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENT FUNDS; PMS PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT SERVICES; SIF SPECIALISED INVESTMENT FUNDS

accountant and a lawyer who are aligned to her overall financial plan, together with transparency in fees, are important consideration," she says.

MAKING STOCK REWARDS WORK

Many large Indian listed companies, global MNCs and prominent well-funded start-ups offer equity—ESOPs (employee stock options) and restricted stock units (RSUs)—as part of the compensation structure.

"A good use of an ESOP is to fund the allocation decided years earlier. A portion for retirement, a portion kept liquid, and the rest diversified. Loyalty to the company and concentration in its stock are different decisions," says Sailesh Balachandran, Founder and Joint-CEO, Prime Trigen Wealth.

ESOPs and RSUs can be great wealth creators if the