

Not Always Smooth Sailing

- The number of women leading family-owned enterprises is steadily increasing
- Subtle challenges like gaining acceptance from senior executives and vendors remain
- Resistance comes rarely from the patriarch or extended family
- Taking tough decisions when required and taking responsibility helps earn trust and credibility
- Balancing legacy along with growing the business is at the heart of core strategic decisions
- There is a strong sense of stewardship that guides the overall outlook