BUILDING A STRONG BASE At SPJIMR, the idea is to build a knowledge base that can address challenges—both managerial and social—at many levels

RANK-4	S. P. JAIN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT & RESEARCH (SPJIMR)
OVERALL SCORE	842.7
PLACEMENT PERFORMANCE	100% placements, with a median salary of ₹32.85 lakh per annum
CAMPUS EXPERIENCE	SPJIMR's 45-acre campus offers a learning environment with strong industry exposure. Students can step beyond the classroom and engage with the city, gaining direct exposure to diverse industries, dynamic markets
NEW INITIATIVES	• Through Maker Lab, a studio-format course, students move beyond analysing business problems or presenting proposed solutions to building and testing working AI-enabled prototypes helps our students get valuable exposure in a different environment," he says.

The programme lasts eight to 10 weeks, with SPJIMR's students sharing classrooms with peers from multiple countries and working on projects in diverse academic groups. Earlier this year, Nagaraj was elected to the AACSB (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) Board of Directors, making SPJIMR the first Indian B-school to be represented on the board in AACSB's 110-year history.

AACSB is a global, nonprofit membership organisation of educational institutions, businesses and other entities devoted to advancing management education.

For Nagaraj, the last piece that keeps him occupied is research. "More than anything else, it must have impact," he says categorically.

The concept of thought leadership is critical here, and SPJIMR's faculty are encouraged to publish in journals and make their presence felt at conferences.

The idea is to build a knowledge base that can address challenges—both managerial and social—at many levels. BT
