▼ CRICKET

FAREWELL TO TESTS

JUST LIKE IT WAS FOR T20 INTERNATIONALS last June, in a confluence of cricketing destinies, Rohit Sharma, 38, and Virat Kohli, 36, stepped away from Test cricket within days of each other. Distinct in style and temperament, they left an indelible mark on Indian cricket. If Rohit imparted a sense of elegant calm and quiet assurance, Virat embodied a hyperactive brilliance. And while Rohit's departure stirs a quiet nostalgia—an ode to a late Test bloomer—Virat's exit reverberates

BATSMANSHIP ASIDE, VIRAT AND ROHIT ALSO HAD A STELLAR RUN AS TEST CAPTAINS. BOTH LED INDIA TO THE WORLD TEST CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS

Text by SUHANI SINGH and AMITABH SRIVASTAVA

ROHIT SHARMA

12

No. of Tests won of the 24 played under Rohit's captaincy (2022-'25). India lost 9 matches, drew 3

177

Score on his Test debut in 2013 against West Indies in Kolkata

- Revived his Test career as an opener in 2019, flourishing in a role tailor-made for his temperament
- Sub-par performances against the Kiwis at home and later in Australia led selectors to reportedly drop him as captain for the coming England tour

TESTS	67
INNINGS	110
RUNS	4,310
100s	12
50s	18
AVERAGE	40.57

Photographs: ANI