1. Note that Summers also raised the issue of U.S. hypocrisy and the frustration of other countries "when US officials ask them to adjust their policies—then insist that American state regulators, independent agencies, and far-reaching judicial actions are beyond their control." He also questioned whether the dollar's primacy can be maintained if Washington is "too aggressive about limiting its use in pursuit of particular security objectives."Lawrence Summers, "Time US Leadership Woke Up to New Economic Era," Financial Times, April 5, 2015; also at http://larrysummers.com/2015/04/05/time-us-leadership-woke-up-to-new-economic-era/.
