international club, 26, 179. See also clubs International Development Association, 76 international economy, size of, 30 International Finance Corporation (World Bank), 76, 78, 85, 141 international financial institutions, 4, 15, 22, 65. See also International Monetary Fund; World Bank international governance institutions, informal rules in, 80 international governmental organizations, 178 international influence, financial, 54–55
International Institute for Strategic Studies, 198n101, 199n103 International Monetary Fund, 7–8, 44, 68, 195n32, 204n12, 204n15, 204nn18–19, 205n30, 207n72, 219n76, 233n8;
board membership and, 75;
BRICS pursuing reform of, 72, 76–87;
BRICS' contribution to, during financial crisis, 9;
capital account liberalization and, 142;
challenges to, 14–15;
China and, 9, 20, 77, 116–117, 120, 168;
CRA and, 95–96;
decision-making in, 80;
early years of, 14;
economic policies of, 85–87;
Europeans as bloc in, BRICS' view of, 77, 82;
favoring Western powers, 75;
14th General Review of Quotas, 74, 76;
15th General Review of Quotas, 75–76, 79, 80;
during global financial crisis, 76, 81;
including RMB in SDRs, 61, 62;
leadership of, 75, 82–84, 206n58;
negative example of, 124;
neoliberalism of, 85–86 (See also neoliberalism);
reforms in, 12, 17–18, 23, 71, 75–82, 118, 218n48;
requiring capital account liberalization, 54;
Russia and, 9–10, 127, 131–132;
staff autonomy in, 129;
steering groups in, 12;
surveillance by, 85–87;
trade imbalances and, 87;
2008 Quota and Voice Reforms, 76;
US influence on, 11;
voting shares in, 127
International Monetary Institute, 200n130 international order. See also global governance; global order international relations: democratization of, 117;
openness to trade, 52;
power shifts in, 14–15, 24–25, 27–28 interstate system: conceptualizations of, 22, multipolarity in, 1, 2 investment activity, developing countries'share of, 38
Iran, 88, 90, 106, 132, 144, 151
Ishihara, Shintaro, 189n68
Ito, Takatoshi, 216n23