Inside Reforms: The BRICS Quest for Greater Influence within the IMF and World Bank (Case 1)

Inside Reforms: Resist Manipulation of Financial Market Power for U.S./Western Political Aims (Case 2)

Outside Options: Create Parallel Financial Institutions Controlled by the BRICS (Case 3)

Outside Options: Diminish Dollar Dominance and Build the Financial Market Power of the RMB (Case 4)

Future Directions and Cooperative Opportunities Not Taken

Conclusion: Mostly Successful BRICS Collective Financial Statecraft

4. Motives for BRICS Collaboration: Views from the Five Capitals

Six Propositions

The View from Beijing: In Search of Legitimacy and Unthreatening Leadership

The View from Moscow: Russia's Struggle for Autonomy and International Influence

The View from New Delhi: Amplifying Voice and Anticipating Multipolarity

The View from Brasília: Enhancing Status and Inviting Investment

The View from Pretoria: Support for Growth and Regional Leadership

Conclusion: Explaining BRICS Collaboration

5. Conclusion: Whither the BRICS?

BRICS and World Order: Too Much Pessimism Is Unwarranted

Growth: The Essential Need to Return to the BRICS' Roots

The Tension Between Formal and Informal Rules

Summing up: The BRICS, Collective Financial Statecraft, and the Multipolar Future

NOTES

INDEX