UPFRONT

ECOWATCH: WILD WATER BUFFALOES PG 13

GRAPHIC: A SUPER EL NINO WARNING PG 14

MATTERS RESOLVED
Adani Group chairman Gautam Adani

AP

▶ ADANI VS US REGULATORS

ADANI'S BIG LEGAL WIN IN US

The closure of three high-profile cases will be a major boost for the Adani Group after the storms of the past year

By M.G. ARUN

THE US DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE (DoJ) HAS PERMANENTLY DROPPED all criminal charges against Adani Group chairman Gautam Adani, his nephew Sagar Adani, Adani Green Energy CEO Vneet S. Jaain and others in a $265 million (Rs 2,568 crore) alleged bribery case dating back to November 2024. The group has also settled with the US markets watchdog, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), a related civil case against Gautam and Sagar Adani for allegedly misleading US investors in Adani Green Energy's $750 million (Rs 7,245 crore) bond offering. The Adanis also agreed to pay $275 million (Rs 2,656 crore) to the US treasury department to settle a civil suit for alleged violations of sanctions in purchase of Iranian gas.

The back-to-back closures of three high-profile cases will come as a major relief for the Adanis. The accusations had rocked the Adani Group for over a year, severely eroding the market value of listed firms and casting a shadow over its ability to raise funds for its aggressive capex plans.

The most significant of these has been the DoJ dropping