INDIA'S PRIVATE UNIVERSITIES RISE TO GLOBAL PROMINENCE

Shine in QS World University Rankings 2026

In over two decades, India has emerged as a global educational hub with private institutions such as Shoolini University, Shiv Nadar University, Galgotias University, Vellore Institute of Technology, O.P. Jindal Global University, CHRIST (Deemed to be University), Kalinga Institute of Industrial Technology (KIIT), Ashoka University etc to name a few, featuring in the QS World University Rankings 2026. India's growing global recognition and stature is testimony to the commitment of such institutions for ensuring academic quality, research output and increasing contribution to enriching global knowledge pool.

Getting listed in the prestigious global QS ranking, which is by subject, speaks volumes about the vision, mission and commitment that the Indian varsities who have pursued with singular purpose to strengthen the education landscape of the country. A PIB release states that India's higher education institutions have achieved their best-ever performance in the QS World University Rankings 2026. A total of 54 universities were featured this year, including 12 Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs). Eight universities have made their debut. India is now the fourth most represented country, after the United States, the United Kingdom and China.

The 2026 QS World University Rankings edition, which is the most trusted and wide-reaching assessments of higher education worldwide, is based on data from over 16 million academic papers and insights from more than 151,000 academics and 100,000 employers. This year's analysis evaluated more than 21,000 academic programmes offered by around 1,900 institutions across 100 countries. The Rankings span 55 individual disciplines grouped into five broad faculty areas.

With technology coming into focus in academics for its indispensable role in reshaping and reorienting every aspect of life and the many possibilities that it has opened career-wise, varsities have dedicated curriculums for various disciplines in technology. Shiv Nadar University with campuses in Chennai and at Greater Noida is known to be a trailblazers with new and innovative multi-disciplinary curriculum taught by faculty drawn from some of the top institutions in the country and the world leveraging it to the QS World Ranking. On August 3, 2022, Shiv Nadar University, Delhi-NCR, became the youngest university to be recognized as an Institution of Eminence by the Ministry of Education, Government of India. Both the SNU campuses offers a variety of opportunities for students to gain industry

G. VISWANATHAN
Chancellor, Vellore Institute of Technology (VIT)

The 2026 QS World University Rankings edition, which is the most trusted and wide-reaching assessments of higher education worldwide, is based on data from over 16 million academic papers and insights from more than 151,000 academics and 100,000 employers. This year's analysis evaluated more than 21,000 academic programmes offered by around 1,900 institutions across 100 countries. The Rankings span 55 individual disciplines grouped into five broad faculty areas.