

▶ JUN. 26, Theatres

WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE

Here's the third film in Akshay Kumar's Welcome series, among his many franchises that ensure he always has something to fall back on. Nearly one-fourth of Bollywood is co-starring. The director is choreographer-turned-filmmaker Ahmed Khan (Heropanti, Baaghi).

▲ JUN. 4, Netflix

MAA BEHEN

A single mom (Madhuri Dixit) and her daughters (Tripti Dimri and Dharna Durga) have to hide the corpse of her neighbouring hunk (Ravi Kishan), who decided to die in their home. Directed by Suresh Triveni (Tumhari Sulu, Jalsa, Subedaar).

▼ JUN. 12, Theatres

MAIN VAAPAS AAUNGA

Imtiaz Ali, A.R. Rahman, Naseeruddin Shah, singer Diljit Dosanjh, and rising stars Vedang Raina, Sharvari and Danish Pandor team up for another Imtiaz Ali flick about lost love and longing across time, against the backdrop of Partition.

▲ JUN. 5, Theatres

HAI JAWANI TOH ISHQ HONA HAI

David Dhawan, the veteran's veteran of wacky nonsensical comedies punched with slapstick, double entendres and relentless comedy setups, directs another one for his son, star Varun Dhawan. He is a playboy tackling two pregnant girlfriends (Mrunal Thakur, Pooja Hegde), but the jokes are more important than the disposable premise.

◀ MAY 30 | Jio Hotstar

COCKTAIL 2

The 2012 film Cocktail, directed by Homi Adjania from an Imtiaz Ali screenplay, was about a 40-year-old man-child stuck between a beautiful woman with conservative values and a beautiful woman with none of that. It was a superhit. The sequel has new faces: Shahid Kapoor, Rashmika Mandanna and Kriti Sanon. Any changes to the plot? Time will tell.

—Compiled by Devarsi Ghosh