

Midsummer Night's Dream

Nocturnal transformation is a promise offered by many beauty brands. The Multi Benefit Night Cream from Inaara makes similar claims. However, it is intensely hydrating without being sticky; neither does it layer on thick, making it a great summer add on. The powerful combination of natural actives and advanced lab ingredients revitalises your skin while you catch up on your beauty sleep.

No Horseplay

This time, the House of Gucci returns with two iconic timepiece collections: Horsebit and Bamboo. Rooted in equestrian traditions, the Horsebit has been Gucci's most iconic emblem since the late 1940s. It has now been reinterpreted in the Horsebit watch, which comes in five new variants. A gold-plated edition completes the collection and features a yellow gold-plated case, black dial, and a smooth black leather strap. Ride the wave.
