

WEAVING WOES
Workers at a Bajaj Fab factory in Bhiwandi, Maharashtra

MANDAR DEODHAR

THE BIG STORY
TEXTILES

A LOOMING CRISIS

India's textiles sector is struggling to recover from the recent geopolitical disruptions and meet its export target of $100 billion by 2030. Revival will require leveraging trade agreements, policy support and upgradation

By M.G. ARUN in Mumbai, JUMANA SHAH in Surat and SONAL KHETARPAL in Noida