CONTENTS

ANI

MANDATE 2026

48 BJP Ups the Ante in Bengal

The booth committees are stronger, there is less factionalism, and belief in the party organisation is high ahead of polling

Pollhouse 52

HEALTH

54 Cure in Our Genes

From cancer care and cardiology to TB and rare disorders, DNA sequencing and genetic tests are helping doctors target specific pathologies and zero in on the exact treatment

LEISURE

61 Delhi's Art Mile

Galleries converge in New Delhi's Defence Colony, reshaping how the capital discovers and collects art

INDIA TODAY MAGAZINE INSIGHT

Presenting India Today Insight

For sharp analysis on topical issues by the editors of INDIA TODAY, log on to www.indiatoday.in/india-today-magazine-insight

BUSINESS

Why a battle for control is brewing at Tata Trusts again

By M.G. Arun

Starting last October as differences among trustees, the crisis has blown up over a move to ease out non-Parsi trustees from one of the trusts under the Tata Trusts https://shorturl.at/o54t0

NEIGHBOURS

Why India needs to be on alert as Pakistan's western front spirals into chaos

By Pradip R. Sagar

Military analysts say that the Pakistan Army's claims of tactical victories are questionable because of their potential for deepening animosity and promoting militancy. This could force it to attempt diversionary posturing on the border with India https://shorturl.at/1HuZ3

GROUND REPORT: FARM FLASHPOINT

Procurement pangs: Why MP wheat farmers stare at a tough year ahead

By Rahul Noronha

A 'gunny-bag shortage' due to the Iran war has postponed government procurement till April 10, forcing many wheat farmers to sell below MSP in the private grain market https://shorturl.at/OklwE

PANKAJ TIWARI

BENGAL POLLS: VOTER LIST ROW

When artist Nandalal Bose's grandson found himself deleted from the voting list

By Arkamoy Datta Majumdar

The grandson of the man who illuminated the Constitution of India now finds himself outside the democratic electoral process that the Constitution created, leaving the intensive roll revision open to questions about access, accuracy and accountability https://shorturl.at/pQZtK

FROM THE ARCHIVES (1976): AMUL

The Amul story: Towards pastures new

By Mukesh Khosla

With Amul FMCG hitting a Rs 1 trillion turnover in FY26, a rewind to the brand's humble history and sweet innovations like the automatic milk vending booth https://shorturl.at/QysGo