The Power of Two

SHIVANI AJMERA AND DISHA BHAVSAR | QUIRK STUDIO

At the Noire House in Mumbai, the duo behind Quirk Studio lean into the beauty of restraint. Moving away from the cluttered look of multiple finishes, Shivani Ajmera and Disha Bhavsar have restricted this kitchen to a high-contrast duo: deep-toned veneer and a bold, monochromatic black-and-white stone.

"We are seeing a shift toward deeper, more saturated palettes," says Ajmera. This moodier aesthetic creates a dramatic, grounded atmosphere that feels more like a lounge than a utility area. To enhance the sense of space, the kitchen opens onto an external terrace via a serving counter, blurring the lines between indoor prep and outdoor entertaining.
