A Seamless Flow of Light and Space

The journey begins in a warm, understated foyer that acts as a gentle decompression chamber from the bustling streets of Mylapore. It opens into a sprawling, seamless floor plan where the living, dining and open kitchen areas converge. This tripartite heart of the home is designed for connection, ensuring the family remains together whether they are cooking, lounging or entertaining.

The Palette of Restraint

The design brief was anchored in a singular word: restraint. Eschewing the loud and the trendy, the home embraces a minimal and timeless aesthetic. The foundation is a calm, neutral envelope built from a classic material vocabulary. Rich timber meets cool marble, while
