Luminous Metamorphosis

Bangalore-based studio Ashni, led by designer Priti Mehta, introduces its latest lighting collection, Amara. Evolving from the studio's 2014 roots in handmade paper, this collection explores the delicate threshold of a flower beginning to bloom. Amara, Sanskrit for eternal, captures nature's transient moments through sculptural luminaires that feel suspended in motion. Handcrafted from sustainable banana fibre paper and banana bark, each piece celebrates material honesty and artisanal irregularity. When illuminated, the layered structures emit a warm, ambient glow.
