

Living Quietly

Ravoh has introduced D'More, a collection that merges high-fashion sensibilities with residential comfort, designed for daily living rather than mere display. The range features items such as the Picasso Dining Table and Wilde Bar Cabinet, bridging Italian design with Indian craftsmanship to create accessible, tactile luxury. This collection prioritises effortless silhouettes and comfort, offering a sophisticated yet welcoming aesthetic for the home.

PRICE on request

AT www.ravoh.in

External Growth

Outdoor furniture brand, Loomcraft, has officially entered the South Indian market with its debut flagship store in Kerala. Recognising the state's status as a premier tourism and luxury residential hub, the brand aims to serve a growing demand from high-end resorts, boutique hotels and premium villas. The new outlet offers over 800 climate-engineered designs specifically crafted to endure high humidity and heavy monsoons.

PRICE on request

AT www.loomcrafts.com

Balancing Act

Lagom, the Swedish-inspired design brand founded by Aishwarya Reddy and backed by the Cornerstone Group, has opened its flagship store in central Bangalore. Transitioning from a furniture brand to a 360-degree interior boutique, Lagom offers a holistic approach to contemporary Indian living. Its design philosophy, rooted in the philosophy of "just the right amount," spans four verticals, including Studio Lagom for sculptural art-furniture and Lagom | Legacy for timeless customisation. The brand seamlessly integrates furniture, lighting and full-scale interior solutions.

PRICE on request

AT www.lagom.in