UNSECURED SURGE

Gen-Z borrowers have less than half the average loan size of older borrowers despite a similar number of loans, reflecting their reliance on smaller, unsecured credit

No. of loans per borrower average (2025)

Debt per borrower
average
(in ₹ lakh, 2025)

THE DEBT PIE

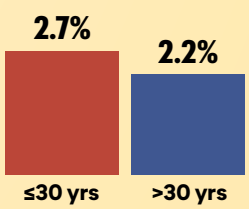

Collateral-free loans dominate among young borrowers, led by personal loans, consumer durable loans and credit cards

REPAYMENT STRAIN

Gen Z seems to be struggling more than older borrowers to repay their loans on time

Loan payments overdue
by 31–90 days (2025)

37%

Share of those aged up to 30 years in total consumer durable loan customers, as compared to 6% in house loans