

Air Apparent

The Fan Studio elevates the humble ceiling fixture into functional art with a handcrafted designer ceiling fan collection. Backed by the Tullu Group's two decades of engineering expertise, the series ensures quiet operation while drawing visual inspiration from India's rich architectural heritage. The Monarch lineup incorporates intricate Odisha Pattachitra narratives and gold-accented Tanjore detailing, while the Shalimar range integrates stately Mughal geometry and Jaipur's delicate Sanganeri leaf patterns.

Textile Tales

Forget boring decor; Prasanaakshi by Life n Colors just launched Language of Living, a stunning handcrafted home textile collection featuring 21 distinct design stories. Conceived by co-founders Apourva and Ashutosh Pandey, this line-up proves a home should hold narratives, not just objects. From the Persian-garden-inspired Gulzar to the cosy, cottagecore charm of High Tea, skilled artisans use hand embroidery, beadwork and Zari to turn everyday curtains, cushions and table linens into future family heirlooms. Ready to give your home a gorgeous new vocabulary? Dive into these layered, cultured pieces and start speaking the true language of luxury.
