

HAND IN HAND Youth Congress workers at a NEET exam leak protest in Delhi

ATUL KUMAR YADAV

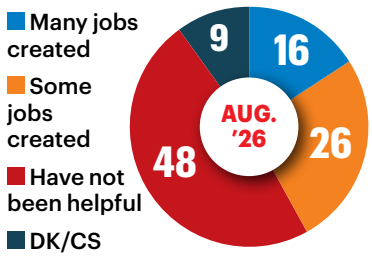

Q. What is the biggest hindrance to employment for young Indians?

Not enough jobs	32
Salaries are too low	18
Jobs do not match qualifications	17
Government recruitment is too slow or unreliable	17
Education does not provide the skills employers need	7
Too few secure jobs with benefits	4

Rest DK/CS

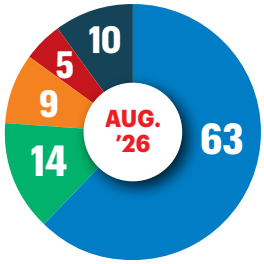

70% of Gen Z respondents thought the unemployment situation is serious in India

Q. Have the steps taken by the Modi government created more jobs?

Almost half of the young cohort feel the Centre's job creation efforts have failed

Q. Who should be responsible for improving the employ-ability of young people?

Some two-thirds of the respondents still look to the state to provide them the tools to lead a meaningful life

Q. What matters most to you while choosing a career?

Salary	29
Job security	19
Work-life balance	18
Career growth	14
Meaningful or socially useful work	8
Flexibility	1
Prestige	2

Rest DK/CS

Salary and job security trump work-life balance for Gen Z too

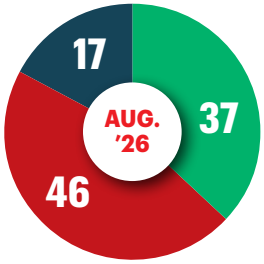

Q. Which career path would you prefer most?

Government service	49
Start my own business	16
Large private company	10
Work for a startup or small business	10
Research or academia	3
Creative or content-creator	2
Freelance or gig work	1

Rest DK/CS

The safety and perks of a government job are still the main attraction for youngsters

Q. Is India currently moving in the right direction?

A sense of foreboding about the nation lies just below the surface for many citizens

All figures in % and rounded off; DK/ CS: Don't know/ can't say