of MOTN respondents say Shreya Ghoshal is India's top female singer winning many hearts for his tender turn as Chander in the romantic show Musafir Cafe. Among actresses, Madhuri Dixit Nene had a dramatic fall, while her '90s peer Kajol claimed the top spot on the back of her popular show The Trial. Samantha Ruth Prabhu and Ananya Pandey rounded up the top three, with Dia Mirza also making her debut in the top five.

BEHIND THE MIC

Arijit Singh shocked many early this year when he hung up his gloves on playback singing. But for the MOTN respondents, it was all the more reason to let him know that he is their perennial favourite. The '90s voices continue to entrance decades later as both Udit Narayan and Sonu Nigam feature on the list, while Diljit Dosanjh was back in the top five with his powerful rendition of 'Kamaal Hai' from Main Vaapas Aaunga, reminding audiences what a versatile artist he is. Among the women, old is still gold as Shreya Ghoshal, Alka Yagnik and Sunidhi Chauhan rule the charts, with Chauhan proving that when it comes to enthralling stage performances, she is still the one to beat. ■
