INDIA TODAY WOMAN SUMMIT 2026

THE FEMALE GAZE: REVOLUTIONISING THE ARTS

YAMINI REDDY, Kuchipudi dancer, choreographer and educator

"Our art forms tie us to our Indian roots. If we don't support them, we are bound to lose our traditions. This is not only the artist's duty"

"These art forms are not just our past. They are our history. We carry them on our bodies and pass them through generations"

Photographs by BANDEEP SINGH

POWER PLAY: ENABLING WOMEN CREATORS AND SHOWCASING SHEROINES

RUCHIKAA KAPOOR SHEIKH, Director, Original Films, Netflix India

"I will never tell a filmmaker to make something universal. It's the feeling or emotion specific to you that will connect to audiences. Stories that are personal and culturally specific have found so much wind globally"

ARUN KUMAR

WOMEN PROFESSIONALS:

CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

NEERU YADAV
Sarpanch, Lambi Ahir Gram Panchayat, Jhunjhunu, Rajasthan

"Leadership isn't defined by gender. It's about your abilities and how you lead your people"