Chairperson of BRICS Women's Business Alliance Avarna jain (centre, second row) with Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Russian President Vladimir Putin and other leaders, New Delhi, September 11, 2026

growth. And the future of inclusion cannot be about creating a parallel agenda for women.It has to be about embedding women into the mainstream business agenda."

She then moderated a session on "Women in Business: Driving Cross-Border Partnerships across BRICS Economies," with Chapter Chairs from Brazil, China, Russia, UAE, South Africa, Iran, and Egypt, focused on moving women-led businesses from networking to real cross-border partnerships and investment.

In his address at the Business Forum, Prime Minister Narendra Modi commended the work of the BRICS WBA. "BRICS WBA is a key part of our vision. We want women business entrepreneurs to lead our growth stories," he said, noting that approximately 200 women business leaders took part in the Alliance meeting held under India's chairship.

Beyond her role at the Alliance, Avarna is Chairperson of RPSG Lifestyle Media, RP-Sanjiv Goenka Group's luxury publishing portfolio spanning Esquire India, Robb Report India, The Hollywood Reporter India, and Manifest. She is also Vice Chairperson of Saregama India Limited, one of India's oldest and most storied music and media companies.

