TURE

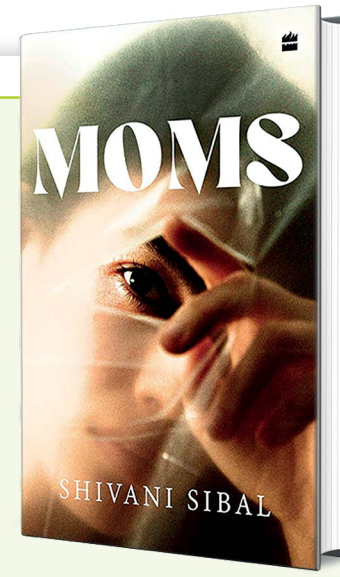

ZONE
Manjula Padmanabhan
HACHETTE INDIA
₹699; 344 pages

I IN THE SKY
A Chandigarh Chronicle
By Neel Kamal Puri
SPEAKING TIGER
₹499; 304 pages

SHE AND THE CITY

A dead woman—whose body has floated to the surface of Sukhna Lake—looks back at her life and that of the city of Chandigarh. Bubbly was born in a canvas tent, in the early years of Chandigarh's making, and she and the city have grown up alongside. Is the definitive Chandigarh novel finally here?

MOMS
By Shivani Sibal
HARPER FICTION
₹599; 264 pages

MARRIAGE AND MORALS

After a promising debut—Equations in 2021—Shivani Sibal is back with Moms, a novel about motherhood and marriage. The protagonist, Radhika Khanna, seems to have the perfect life, cossetted by wealth and stature in Delhi society. But then the fissures appear and it all starts to fall apart.

GRIEF BURNS LIKE FEVER
By Minakshi Thakur
WESTLAND/ TRANQUEBAR
₹499; 216 pages

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL

It's not often that publishers double up as writers, even though their day job keeps them in close proximity to books. Minakshi Thakur, who heads Ekadā—Westland's vibrant regional languages and translation imprint—is part of the select tribe that wears both hats. Set during the second wave of the pandemic, her meditative new novel is a paean to hope in the face of mortality.

—Compiled by Amit Dixit