INTERVIEW

RETAIL

THE ART OF THE ARCHIVE

Inside Sabyasachi's multi-layered world of majesty that doubles up as a living museum of the past.

Chumki Bharadwaj

Sabyasachi's 26,000 square foot new flagship at The Citadel, One Style Mile in Mehrauli is a retail wonderland that is pure maximalism; part palace, and perfect manifestation of every hedonist's ultimate fantasy. The opening, however, wasn't just a punctuation in his storied retail narrative but an occasion to celebrate his new collaboration with The Metropolitan Museum of Art. The designer of dreams along with Josh Romm, Head of Global Licensing & Partnerships, The Met, shared their thoughts on this iconic collaboration and onward journey with India Today Spice.

Wrist cuff in 18- and 22-ct gold with garnet cabochons and brown diamonds, inspired by a 3rd C Roman sculpture (Left); Sabyasachi Mukherjee with Josh Romm, Head of Global Licensing & Partnerships, The Met; Sabyasachi's new flagship in Mehrauli