COUNTED BY CASTE: SHOULD POPULATION SIZE DICTATE SOCIAL JUSTICE ARCHITECTURE?

"Congress didn't implement the Mandal Commission report when in power in the Centre. Our (BJP-supported) Janata Dal government did. Reservation is needed, but shouldn't be linked to population size"

ARVIND BELLAD
Deputy Leader of Opposition, Karnataka Legislative Assembly

SANTOSH S. LAD
Minister of Labour and Employment, Karnataka

"OBCs form 60% of the country, but 60% of them have no voice in Parliament or assemblies. They can't compete via caste or money. They don't own land and are not entrepreneurs. Reservation is a right, not charity"

THE SOUTHERN CHALLENGE: FEDERALISM, DELIMITATION AND THE POLITICS OF POWER

Y.K. CHAMARAJA WADIYAR
Member, Lok Sabha

"The relationship between the Centre and a state is one of negotiation. It isn't that the state just goes and puts forward a demand. States simply have to continue to negotiate with the Centre"

L.S.K. DEVARAYALU
Member, Lok Sabha; Parliamentary Party Leader, TDP; Vice Chairman, Vignan University

"After delimitation, the number of seats and proportionate representation for Hyderabad city will increase. Rural areas will suffer. Do you want that?"

K.R. SURESH REDDY
Former Member, Rajya Sabha

"There is a huge difference between content and intent—what the Centre promised and delivered with the Delimitation Bill in the House was different. We are the victims of this"

JEBI MATHER
Member, Rajya Sabha

"Southern states are going to be punished because we implemented population control schemes perfectly. We are not asking for a privilege, but our voice, equivalent to what we deserve"
