FROM PROTEST TO POWER: THE POLITICS OF YOUNG INDIA

DR ALOSHIOUS XAVIER
State President, Kerala Students Union

"If protests, even those conducted with state permission, lead to violence or actions that are against democracy, then the government must act"

S. MRIDHULA
Tamil Nadu State President, SFI

"The central government should listen to the states. Tamil Nadu has been fighting against NEET for more than a decade, and we haven't been heard"

VIJAY REDDY MALLANGI
National Media Lead and South India In-Charge, Cockroach Janta Party

"The centralisation of educational curricula needs to be fought. The National Education Policy takes away the rights of states"

CRACKING THE GEN Z CODE

VIJAY REDDY MALLANGI
National Media Lead and South India In-Charge, Cockroach Janta Party

"The central government ordered six social media takedown notices every day from October 2024 to 2025. That jumped to 1,200 daily after March this year. That's almost one order a minute"

ANIL K. ANTONY
National Secretary & Spokesperson, BJP

"What separates us from other parties is that we're willing to take accountability. There have been so many paper leaks since Independence, but this is the first time someone took the moral accountability to resign. He also took unprecedented corrective steps"

Photographs by CHANDRADEEP KUMAR