REIMAGINING THE INDIAN CLASSROOM: HOW TO CONNECT DEGREES WITH JOBS

"AI has added another layer of uncertainty around employment. Institutions must build trust and offer robust support system. For this age, teachers need to be upskilled"

KADHAMBARI S. VISWANATHAN
Assistant Vice-President, Vellore Institute of Technology

AISSHWARYA D.K.S. HEGDE, Edupreneur

"Life works in identifying the problem first and then solving it. Students do not necessarily need to become AI experts, but they must become AI-literate. The role of a teacher goes beyond delivering knowledge"

SOUTH INDIA AS AN EMERGING FINANCIAL HUB

C. BALAGOPAL
Chairman, Kerala State Industrial Development Corporation, and Former Chairman, Federal Bank

"Remittances affect Kerala's per capita consumption spending—it's at number one. Kerala, with 1.5% of India's area, 2.5% of its population, accounts for 10% of FMCG consumption"

ASHISH CHANDAK
Group Chief Compliance Officer, Manappuram Finance Limited

"Our growth in gold loans is second to none. They're growing even faster than home loans. That's a lot of opportunity"

WINNING BACK THE CARGO: THE BIG TRANSHIPMENT BET

"Due to Vizhinjam, you save $80-100 per container, exporting or importing—that's substantial. Transit delay is also saved"

LUXMAN RADHAKRISHNAN
Former Chairman, JNPT; Former MD & CEO, Malabar International Port & SEZ

SREEKUMAR K. NAIR
CEO, Vizhinjam International Seaport

"Seeing an ultra-large container vessel in any Indian port is a very rare event. Last month itself, Vizhinjam received almost seven or eight"

S.N. RAGHUCHANDRAN NAIR, President, Trivandrum Chamber of Commerce & Industry

"While it took 10 years to get from commissioning to building the port, road and rail connectivity haven't yet caught up. That's important to get it to its full potential"
