with their eclectic performances. Hindustani classical vocalist Smita Bellur, who is excited about sharing the stage with Sadiq Khan, Asin Khan and Zakir Khan Langa of SAZ and a collaboration with Bordet, believes that Rajasthani folk music would have lost its authentic repertoire had it not been for the conservation work done by Jodhpur RIFF. SAZ, who are part of multiple collaborations, are equally appreciative of the platform that gives folk artists the opportunity to collaborate with great musicians from all over the world. ■

—Deepali Dhingra

To be held from Oct. 22-26 at Mehrangarh Fort, Jodhpur, Rajasthan

◀ OCT. 24, '26-FEB. 20, '27 | Nine-city

SONU NIGAM: THE REVOLUTION INDIA TOUR

Sonu Nigam celebrates 30 years of music, bringing his extensive catalogue to audiences across nine cities. Framed around nostalgia, family and togetherness, the tour promises an evening of familiar favourites and live performance, celebrating one of India's most versatile and exciting voices.

▶ OCT. 12-13 | Prithvi Theatre & NCPA, Mumbai

SOI Chamber Orchestra with Maria Badstue

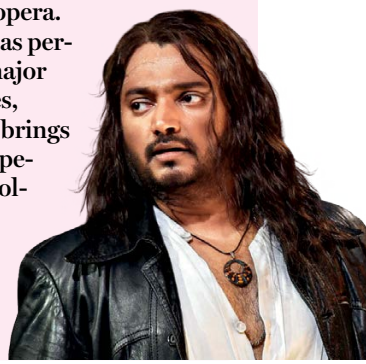

The Symphony Orchestra of India (SOI) Chamber Orchestra welcomes conductor Maria Badstue for a programme spanning Vaughan Williams, Mozart and Haydn. Originally from India and now based in Denmark, Badstue trained with renowned conductor Jorma Panula.

▼ OCT. 25 | Mazda Hall, Pune

AMAR MUCHHALA, TENOR & JOHANN PEIRIS, PIANO

British-Indian tenor Amar Muchhala joins Sri Lankan pianist Johann Peiris for an evening of vocal and piano repertoire spanning the Romantic period and opera. Muchhala has performed at major opera houses, while Peiris brings extensive experience as a collaborative pianist and chamber musician.

▶ NOV. 13-15 | Delhi, Kolkata & Bengaluru

KEINEMUSIK PRESENTS ADAM PORT

Keinemusik co-founder Adam Port brings his acclaimed electronic sound to three Indian cities. Known for combining melodic house with Afro-inspired rhythms and hypnotic soundscapes, Port has become a prominent figure on the international electronic music circuit.

—Compiled by Nikhil Sardana