

INTERLAKEN, WHERE HOLIDAYS BECOME SPECIAL IN AUTUMN & WINTER

: Interlaken, Switzerland's best-known adventure hub, is at its glorious best in autumn & winter.

A winter trip to Interlaken is incomplete without time on the slopes.

Go kayaking on Lake Brienz

Located between the two lakes in Switzerland's Bernese Oberland, Interlaken is more than a scenic base - it is one of Switzerland's best-known adventure hub where in autumn and winter you can choose between hiking trails, mountain railways, lake cruises, paragliding, other outdoor experiences or simply a slower pace.

Begin with Harder Kulm, Interlaken's local mountain. From the viewing platform, enjoy sweeping views of the town between Lake Thun and Lake Brienz, framed by the Eiger, Mönch and Jungfrau. For an adrenaline rush, try tandem paragliding over the valley or go skydiving for spectacular aerial views of the Alps. Those looking for a delicious Swiss experience can also try a chocolate-making workshop and learn how Switzerland's famous chocolate is crafted.

Autumn is a beautiful time to explore Interlaken's outdoors. Walk through colourful alpine landscapes along the spruce forests, meadows and panoramic viewpoints.

Make time for a relaxing cruise on Lake Thun or Lake Brienz, with autumn colours reflected across the turquoise waters.

Interlaken is also an ideal base for exploring the wider Jungfrau Region. DO not forget to add the iconic Jungfraujoch and adventure filled Grindelwald First to your itinerary for more mountain views, adventure, photography and unforgettable Swiss experiences.

Winter in Interlaken: Interlaken offers a winter holiday that goes beyond simply seeing snow. You can ski on it, walk through it, climb it, race across a lake beside it or quietly paddle through the mountains.

Go skiing in the Jungfrau Region; snowshoeing through quiet forests and snow-covered trails; snow paragliding above Interlaken's white mountain peaks, valleys and lakes; jet boating on Lake Brienz; or, go paddling across the lake.

Interlaken is also the starting point for one of Switzerland's most iconic mountain journeys, Jungfraujoch – Top of Europe.

Take time to savour the autumn & winter Swiss flavours: Fondue, raclette, rösti and Älplermagronen.

In Interlaken, autumn & winter are not something you watch from the window. You step right into it.

The Jungfrau Region offers skiing with some spectacular mountain