THEATRE ▼

STORIES WITHOUT BORDERS

THE UPCOMING IHC THEATRE FESTIVAL 2026 WILL BRING DISTINCT VOICES ON STAGE

Broadening horizons and pushing creative boundaries, the India Habitat Centre (IHC) Theatre Festival 2026 is set to gather some of the nation's finest theatre makers for a memorable showcase. Over 10 days, from September 18 onwards, the festival will present a rich tapestry of Hindi, English, Punjabi and Tamil productions, supported by the National School of Drama.

"The festival is not simply a collection of plays; it is a celebration of the breadth, vitality and continuing evolution of Indian theatre," says Prof. Dr K.G. Suresh, director, IHC. "Its enduring appeal lies in this diversity and in its ability to bring artists and audiences together in a meaningful cultural dialogue."

The Listicle

Upcoming musical performances you should not miss

▲ OCT. 2-4 | South City International School, Kolkata

Kolkata Tradition Festival

The Kolkata Tradition Festival 2026 celebrates India's classical music, dance and folk traditions through three days of performances by some of the country's leading artists. The programme includes Pt L. Shankar, Pt Tarun Bhattacharya, Bickram Ghosh, Begum Parveen Sultana, Sivamani, Pt Vishwa Mohan Bhatt and Pt Anup Jalota, alongside accomplished practitioners of Odissi, Kathak and other Indian dance forms. Presented by Hindusthan Art & Music Society and Eternal Sounds, the festival offers a wide-ranging celebration of India's living cultural heritage.

▼ SEPT. 19 & OCT. 3 | Mumbai & Bengaluru

A.R. Rahman: Sufiana Safar & The Wonderment Tour

A.R. Rahman takes audiences on two distinct musical journeys this season. Sufiana Safar at Mumbai's NCPA explores the spiritual traditions of Sufi music. On Oct. 3, he returns to Bengaluru after eight years with The Wonderment Tour, a large-scale concert featuring a live orchestra, visuals and music spanning his celebrated career.

