CJP BLUEPRINT: DECODING THE COCKROACHES' AGENDA

"Can opposition in this country only come from political parties? Aren't pressure groups part of it? We, as a youth movement, want to bring a culture of pressure groups. And we have succeeded to some extent because the nation has now awakened"

SAURAV DAS
Co-convener and Spokesperson, Cockroach Janta Party

"Why one nation, one election? Just declare one nation, one party. Article 19 gives us the right to protest. If we can protest in Mumbai, in Bengaluru, why can't we protest in Delhi? Is Delhi governed by a different Constitution?"

ABHIJEET DIPKE, Founder, Cockroach Janta Party

"If the police cannot control the protesters, that is a failure of law and order. And if it is a law-and-order failure, Amit Shah should resign. The answer cannot be to stop people from protesting"

"If illegalities have been committed, then somebody has to own the responsibility... Why should the buck only stop at Gyanesh Kumar's door? Why not the other two election commissioners as well?"

ASHOK LAVASA, Ex-Election Commissioner

"The law says that if the process of finalising the electoral roll is not complete, then elections have to be held [on the basis of the] earlier electoral roll. A discrepancy is not a disqualification"

O.P. RAWAT, Ex-Chief Election Commissioner
