POETRY OF MATTER

French design heavyweight Collection Particulière has made its grand Indian debut at Mumbai's luxury experiential destination, Nilaya Anthology

By RIDHI KALE

Recently, Mumbai's design hub Nilaya Anthology opened its doors to French collectible design house Collection Particulière, marking a definitive shift in India's luxury interior landscape. Artistic director Jérôme Aumont and designer Christophe Delcourt visited the city to trace their decade-long partnership. In an exclusive conversation, they trace their decade-long partnership, their obsession with raw design materials and why French minimalism is the perfect soulmate for the textured, layered tapestry of contemporary Indian homes.

Decade of Shared Evolution

Since launching Collection Particulière in 2014, the duo has balanced two distinct
