Where there is Faith & Devotion Pitambari Devbhakti's aroma spreads!

Pitambari® Devbhakti® Incense Sticks

Every morning, millions of Indians begin their day with a prayer. The light of a diya, a moment of silence and the soothing fragrance of incense bring a sense of peace, positivity and purpose. It is these everyday moments of devotion that inspire new beginnings.

Celebrating this timeless bond between faith and fragrance, Pitambari has introduced Devbhakti Agarbatti, made with natural ingredients. Crafted from the essence of flowers and other naturally fragrant ingredients, Devbhakti Agarbatti is designed to elevate the everyday worship experience. Devbhakti's recent television campaign featuring Bollywood actor, director & producer Riteish Deshmukh beautifully captures this emotion with its tagline: 'Jaha Shraddha Aur Bhakti, Waha Mehke Pitambari Devbhakti.'

Unlike ordinary incense, Devbhakti Agarbatti is free from harsh chemicals, offers a long-lasting fragrance & emits less smoke, creating a calm and pleasant atmosphere for prayer.

The range includes timeless fragrances such as Chandan, Jasmine, Champa, Rose and many more. For those who enjoy variety, Devbhakti Saptarshi-Atri 7 in 1 Agarbatti brings together seven unique fragrances in one pack.

Adding a unique dimension to worship is the Upasana Range, where every agarbatti is created with ingredients and fragrances beloved by a particular deity. Ganesh Upasana is crafted with Hibiscus flower powder and fragrant Vetiver, while Shiv Upasana combines Belapatra powder with the fragrance of the Kailaspati flower. The range also includes Jai Shri Ram Upasana, Jai Shri Krishna Upasana and Kuldevi Upasana.

Pitambari has also introduced the Dosh Nivaran Range, including Shani Upasana, Rahu Dosh Nivaran and Mangal Dosh Nivaran Agarbattis, crafted using ingredients traditionally associated with these planets and deities to make prayers more meaningful.

Beyond agarbattis, the Devbhakti family also includes Dhoop Sticks, Dhoop Cups, Bhimseni Camphor and other Pooja essentials. The entire range has been appreciated by many consumers for its quality & fragrances.

Pitambari Devbhakti celebrates the timeless bond between faith and fragrance. Crafted with nature's finest ingredients, it makes every prayer more meaningful and every new beginning more positive.
